

1. Make sure you can get the API from class to work in Azure. Take a screenshot of it working and add the image to a jupyter notebook.
2. Loop through the API data in python using the /gdp/<year> endpoint for your API. What does it look like? Is there a way to alter the html page to simplify what you see?